Membership Meeting

This week's meeting we'll devote to acquiring new members. We have one new member in this Rotary year. Of course, President Jim would like to have 10 new members in this and next Rotary year. We'll be exploring what it takes to gain new members. Club growth has been situation through out North America. What can we do about it? That is what we'll explore.

PROSPECTIVE MEMBERS

Rotary processes tens of thousands of membership leads from people around the world who are interested in joining Rotary. These potential members are all around you — they might be Rotary alumni who moved to your area or someone who heard about Rotary in the news or saw your club's billboard.

RELOCATING MEMBERS

Is one of your members relocating or looking to change clubs because of schedule conflicts or other obligations? Keep them active in Rotary by helping them rejoin or find a new club. And be sure to check your leads for members who are moving to your area or looking for a new club to join.

REFERRED MEMBERS

Do you know someone who would make a great Rotarian but isn't in your area or can't meet when your club meets? Refer a member and we'll help them find a Rotary club that works for them. By referring qualified candidates to another club — and acting on referrals to your club — you help strengthen Rotary's ability to do good in the world.

Taste of Hawaii

This Sunday, June 2, is one of the best highlighted fund raisers on Kauai. You probably seen Mid-Week paper that tells about this fabulous event. One of our own members, Dick Olsen, is asking for our assistant. He runs the supplies for the event. He needs help on Friday, Saturday and mostly on Sunday, the day of the event. Call Dick if you can help - 634-8703.

May -- Rotary Youth Month

The people who know me best — my family — know that my passion for Rotary is boundless.

They also know that I don't expect them to get involved in Rotary the way I have. It's a choice that's up to them. But I must admit, I can't help smiling when I see them making the right choice.

At the end of the Toronto convention last year, my 12-year-old granddaughter turned to me and said, "I'm inspired to do something. What can I do?" Naturally, I did what any other Rotarian grandfather worth his salt would do: I asked her if there was an Interact club in her school. When she discovered there wasn't, she attempted to set one up. Unfortunately, her principal had other ideas, but we should not be deterred from helping Rotary youth programs whenever we can, because their value is beyond question.

Take Rotary Youth Leadership Awards as one example. It transforms young people into more confident, focused individuals with a better understanding of the world around them — changes I was pleased to see in my 16-year-old grandson after he participated.

My family is just the beginning. Everywhere I go, I meet people of all ages whose lives have been changed by our youth programs. They tell me how, five or 15 or 25 years ago, Rotary Youth Exchange taught them a new language or introduced them to a new culture. Their eyes light up when they talk about how New Generations Service Exchange helped them advance in their career, or about how membership in Rotaract first ignited their passion for giving back to the community.

Rotary's programs for young leaders extend our ideals of service, friendship, and leadership development beyond the doors of our clubs to hundreds of thousands of young people each year. And when we serve with and for those young people — as sponsors, project partners, and mentors — it brings out the best in us, and it brings out the best in Rotary.

May is Youth Service Month, and there are many ways your Rotary club can celebrate. Sponsor an Interact club or Rotaract club, and your Rotary club will give young people in your community the tools they need to take action, become leaders, and gain a global perspective. Team up with your local Rotaract club for a service project. Get to know the participants in Rotary's programs for young leaders and share their stories with your community. You'll find more ideas in this year's Rotary Citation brochure, located under the Awards section of the Member Center at my.rotary.org.

The 4 – Way Test

Is it the truth?

Is it fair to all concerned?

Will it build goodwill and better friendships?

Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

“Rotary is a leadership organization”

“We’re made up of local business, professional, and civic leaders. We meet regularly, get to know each other, form friendships; and, through that, we’re able to get things done in the community”.
